early-stage social engagement program

Enhancing the lives of individuals living with memory loss and their care partners

Painting & Drawing Open Studio with Lesa Cook

This self-expression class will be held in an open studio format for people to work independently under the guidance of the artist and instructor, Lesa Cook.

All Mediums are welcome and no experience is necessary.

Participants can bring projects they are already working on or request direction provided in drawing, painting, and mixed media. Students will also have the opportunity to take guided short tours of the galleries and works of art on display at the Delaplaine for inspiration.
